Professional Experience

Prior to joining the firm, Mr. Greer served in the United States Army during the Global War on Terrorism. In 2003, as a member of the 101st Airborne Division, he deployed to Iraq as part of the expeditionary force sent to topple the Iraqi regime. In 2005, Mr. Greer returned to Iraq as a leader of a long range reconnaissance unit along the Iraqi border with Iran. In 2009, Mr. Greer led a small detachment of combat soldiers stationed at a remote outpost in Afghanistan along the Pakistani border.

After leaving the military, Mr. Greer worked in the business community in the Nashville and Memphis metro areas before earning his law degree from the University of Mississippi.
