

GLANKLER BROWN.

ATTORNEYS

Member
901.576.1727
rmyers@glankler.com

Practice Areas

- Litigation
- Real Estate
- Public Law & Governmental Relations

Richard J. Myers

Professional Experience

Richard J. Myers concentrates his practice in the areas of litigation, real estate and public law and governmental relations.

Mr. Myers currently serves as City Attorney to Oakland, Tennessee and has served as City Attorney to Gallaway, Tennessee (2009-2013). He also serves as Special Counsel to the City of Covington and Outside Counsel to the City of Memphis.

Education

- Loma Linda University, BA degree, cum laude, 1986
- University of Chicago, MA degree, cum laude, 1989
- Cornell Law School, JD degree, 1992

Admitted to Practice

- Tennessee
- U.S. District Court, Western District of Tennessee
- U.S. Court of Appeals, Sixth Circuit
- United States Supreme Court

Professional/Civic/Charitable Organizations

- World Cataract Foundation, Member, Board of Directors
- University of Memphis College of Arts & Sciences, Member, Dean's Advisory Board
- Memphis Bar Association, Member